Rosie is a little stork. She has got two sisters and two brothers. They are all little. They can't fly. Their mother brings the food. They are hungry.

One day the mother says:

“You can fly now. Fly and find food.”

Her sisters and brothers try hard.

Flying is very difficult! They flap their wings, try to fly and fall.

They are tired.

The next day, they try again. Now they can flap their wings and fly. They are very happy. They like flying. They fly and find food.

They tell Rosie: “Come on Rosie, flap your wings and fly”. Rosie says: “Me? No, I can’t.” Rosie can’t fly because she is scared. Her mother says: “Go on, try to fly. You can”.

The End
