35. - 37. soruları aşağıdaki parçaya göre cevaplayınız.

During the early phase of her art, George Eliot drew from her own youthful experience as the daughter of a land agent in the Midlands and wrote about the rural civilisation that she had observed so keenly. Adam Bede, her greatest novel, is set at the turn of the eighteenth century in the village of Hayslope and Eliot has been much praised for the realism with which she presents the village itself and evokes the life of the community. Eliot uses the daily occupations of her characters as an integral part of characterisation. The hero, Adam Bede, is seen in the carpenter's workshop where a wealth of accurate detail establishes the dignity of his work. Eliot develops a powerful sense of rhythm of daily life in a strong, stable society which serves to counterattack the melodrama of the more violent elements of the plot. She blends irony and tenderness to perfection.
